THE DAILY HERALD.

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 1887.

BUSINESS AND PERSONAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

With this issue the DAILY HERALD will cease to be published. It will be succeeded next business day by the Daily Gazette, to be issued from the office of the "Hawaiian Gazette Publishing Company," under the same editorship. The subscriber will close up all the HERALD business, but confine himself exclusively to literary work on the Gazette. At the same time he would bespeak for the publishers of the Daily Gazette a continuance of the favors of all patrons of the HERALD. Although the last named paper achieved, during the eleven months of its existence, a remarkably good standing for the capital invested in it; yet its successor, besides an excellent nucleus to amplify and develop, has the prestige conferred by the name of one of the oldest established weekly journals in the Kingdom. These advantages will most probably make the Daily Gazette an assured success within a very brief period. Its circulation, as such goes in this country, will be large at the very outset, and from its facilities for doing business, not possessed by the proprietor of this paper, as well as from the established connections of the office through the weekly Gazette, the circle of the new daily's readers may be reasonably anticipated to extend rapidly. This is a hint to the advertising public, who have been exceedingly generous to the undersigned, so far as regular business patronage is concerned; the only failure of expectation regarding that branch of the business having been in the transient class of advertising, which takes longer to attract than long term contracts.

As the subscriber is only making a business change and hopes to greet all the readers of the HERALD through the columns of the Gazette on Monday morning, he does not deem it necessary to issue anything like a valedictory on this occasion. He would simply return the most heartfelt thanks to the English reading community of Honolulu for their very kind and liberal appreciation of his efforts to give them the news and to faithfully represent the true interests of the people in general through the columns devoted to opinion. It may not be rash to promise that, as editor of the Daily and the weekly Hawaiian Gazette, he will give improved service to the public, owing to the release from business cares and labor which absorbed a very large proportion of his time while conducting the HERALD. Thanks are cordially returned to the Press Publishing Company for its confidence during struggling days, and to its President, Mr. T. G. Thrum, for favors from time to time.

DANIEL LOGAN,
Editor and Proprietor Daily Herald.

Firemen of Honolulu.

I once again appear before you as candidate for the position of Chief Engineer, in conjunction with my former associates on the ticket, Messrs. Asche and Souza. Although elected by a majority of votes and according to the usages in force for over thirty years, yet having legal advice on the subject, I have accepted the situation and therefore present myself for the coming election.

Two assistant engineers duly elected declined to serve with me. A great amount of venom has been wasted on Pacific Hose Co. No. 1, as to how members had been picked up on the streets, etc. Since I have had the honor of being Foreman of Pacific Hose Co. the company has steadily increased and there has been good attendance at drills and fires. The company consists of men of all occupations, and I fail to see any law by which the number of voting members of any company for this election can be limited as it would be a manifest injustice deterring members who are now in good standing from voting. I will not follow the example of some and descend to personalities. My motto is, "The good of the Department and of the Public," and on that platform I will meet my opponents and trust to your good sense and honest feeling in the coming election.

M. D. MONSARRAT,
Foreman Pacific Hose Co. No. 1.

IT REGULATES THE LIVER AND KIDNEYS.
Cures Indigestion and all diseases arising from an unwholesome condition of the system.

DR. MARTINE, of London, the celebrated specialist, says of PARDEE'S REMEDY: "I have used it for twenty years for Blood Diseases, such as Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Tetor and Cancer, and I cannot recommend it too highly." The Rev. Dr. THOMAS, of Hong Kong, China, says: "PARDEE'S REMEDY is a wonderful medicine for the Blood. I have prescribed it hundreds of times for Leprosy, and when given in time it always cured the patient. I can safely say that Leprosy will never break out on persons who take PARDEE'S REMEDY regularly, and I advise all persons living in countries where Leprosy is prevalent to take PARDEE'S REMEDY as a preventive."
